Unreality Topic of Scientists

Overcoming weariness and fatigue through spiritual means will be the theme of the lesson-sermon of "Unreality" in the First Church of Christian Science, 2880 El Dorado St.

Paul's counsel from Hebrews (13:9) is the Golden Text: "Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace."

Scriptural selections include the following from Isaiah (40:28, 29): "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength."

Gospel Artist to Appear Here

Dick Goodwin, recording artist and gospel singer, will present a concert of hymns and gospel songs at the South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon Ave., Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m.

Goodwin has performed in prisons, hospitals, and churches throughout the U.S. He trained with the Audrey Meier and was featured soloist with the Harmony Chorus and the Audrey Meier Choir.

Record Crowd Expected for Nativity Dinner

Record crowd is expected to attend the semi-annual Nativity parish family dinner, sponsored by the Holy Name society, in the church hall Sunday, April 24.

William Fredericks, president, said his organization will plan a dinner for more than the 700 people who attended the function last year. Co-chairman of the program is Frank Kristufek.

Steve Montez again will direct dinner preparations. Kieran Brennan will handle procurement.

Other appointments are Joseph Platt, publicity; John McVey, tickets; Bob Klaesges and Jack Redding, facilities; and Dick Olson, service. On special assignments will be Bernard Douggan, Fred Voeste, and Dennis Owens. Final plans for the event will be announced at a breakfast meeting following the monthly Holy Name mass and communion Sunday, April 10.
